VERLICHTING

The Goodman features a classic rectangular lantern silhouette, beautifully crafted with a solid brass frame. Clear glass panels on the front and sides provide an unobstructed view of the interior, allowing the warm metallic tones of the brass back plate to shine through.

Its design seamlessly blends traditional charm with a touch of vintage flair. Inside, a single curved brass arm supports an upright bulb socket, creating a simple yet striking focal point. A hinge and lock system is installed on the side provides access to the interior, ensuring practical maintenance and effortless bulb changes.

The Goodman is ideal for adding refined, ambient illumination to entryways, hallways, or outdoor spaces.
